FROM PASTOR BECKY ...

"Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." Isaiah 43:19

It always amazes me when I watch the trees in the springtime. The new life starting out as tiny buds and becoming leaves that shade my lawn. It always seems like a miracle when flowers and green start to appear. It reminds me that life was sleeping there all winter and I couldn't see it. A new raised garden bed has been built in my yard, a place to grow tomatoes and lettuce. Herbs are being planted in little growing boxes on my back deck.

This scripture from the book of Isaiah always seems relevant in spring time, when things are coming back to life. The question, "do you not perceive it" is really standing out to me this year. I think it is easy for us to miss the ways that God is working in our midst, the new things that God is doing. We are always so busy with the things that we have to get done and all of the responsibilities we have. It doesn't leave us much time to stop and look at what is growing around us. God is always calling us to grow, to dig our roots deep and reach toward heaven. How is God calling you to grow in this season?

In light and love,
Pastor Becky

Take Courage by Vicki Kemper

Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, says the Lord. Take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord; work, for I am with you. My spirit abides among you; do not fear. – Haggai 2:3-5 (NRSV, abridged)

You who fear your best days are behind you, take courage, for the Holy One is not finished with you.

You who fear what is yet to come, take courage, for the God of Glory is yet with you.

You who fear that the generations before you have left your generation with nothing but demise and disaster, take courage; the Creator is yet at work.

You who fear that the church is dying, take courage and consider what the Spirit is doing even now.

You who are inclined to become evangelists of every new self-help fad, take courage and make space for the still, small voice within you.

You who refuse to change, take courage—and commit to trying one new thing this week.

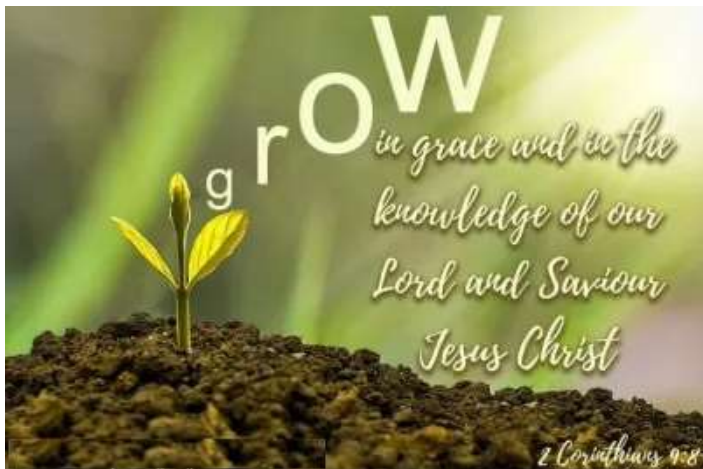

You who are prone to catastrophizing, take courage and get to work. God can make a way out of no way.

You who are prone to denial, consider the facts and take courage anyway, trusting that the truth will set you free.

Whoever you are, wherever life finds you, whatever you fear, name it and carry on. Face it, and lean in. Take courage, and live with the boldness of a love that death cannot contain.

Prayer

For the gift of courage, the hope of flexibility, the practice of surrender, and the promise of new life, we give you thanks and praise.

Concerns from the Past:

- Mid-week Lenten services went great and were well attended.
- Tim and Kirk gave an update on the installation of hand rails throughout the hallways. They discussed the extent of the project, installation on one side of the halls where the least number of doors are, and how the railing might maneuver around those doorways yet still meet ADA standards. No action taken at this point. Tim will consult with Wayne Simmerman about this project.
- Kirk reported that the indoor transport chair will be delivered Friday, April 11.
- Cross Carry in Bethlehem begins at 10am on Friday, April 18th
- Pastor Becky sent out an email to members who expressed an interest in forming a UCC WISE committee. Included in that email was a WISE handbook. The first WISE meeting will be on May 16. Subsequent meetings will tentatively be held on Fridays.

Concerns for the Future:

- Diana requested that Consistory Members submit information for the 2026 LSUCC Yearbook earlier than the January due date. Late submissions were challenging last year.
- Cheryl is setting up a meal delivery/support for Kate Griffiths
- Pastor Becky is looking for at least four readers to assist in the Good Friday service. There were no immediate volunteers.

Next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, May 14th at 6:30pm. Meeting was adjourned, and all joined in the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Lindsey

Our JOYFUL NOISE campaign raised $32.00 in March for Heifer Project. In May the money collected will support the Amigos de Guatemala Fund.

Amigos de Guatemala

The PNEC Conference felt called to establish a partnership with the churches and people of Guatemala. Working with CONCEJO, an ecumenical organization there, we learned of Monte Margarita, a remote mountain village miles from any medical facilities. After sending a medical team there in 2011, we were determined to build a multi-use facility and clinic. The community has few vehicles, roads are poor, the water is not clean, and many health issues go untreated. The new building, which includes a clinic, community room, and housing for workers is nearly finished. The people in Monte Margarita already use it for church meetings, small business conferences, and education.

How does this Ministry Team align with the vision, mission, and goals of the Penn Northeast Conference and the United Church of Christ:

The PNEC has a history of partnerships with people around the world, including Native Americans, Germany, Honduras, and India. More than just a mission project, our understanding of other cultures is enhanced and our faith is enriched by their deep faith. This, we believe, is the love and servanthood to which Christ has called us.

How can people become engaged in this work of this Ministry Team

- Invite the Amigos to show Our power point of photos to your congregation. We have Guatemalan crafts that we sell to raise funds for medical supplies and travel expenses.
- We are always glad to receive donations from churches and individuals. Some churches have also collected medicines to send with our medical teams.
- Join our team to help organize future trips for this vital ministry.
- Follow us on Facebook: Amigos de Guatemala (Lehigh Valley)
- For more information contact Rev. Gilberto Garcia-Rodriguez at 610-298-3938 or the conference office.

Letter from Our Conference Minister Dated April 10, 2025

“Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, says the Lord. Take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord; work, for I am with you. My spirit abides among you; do not fear.” - Haggai 2:3-5 (NRSV, abridged)

Dear Friends,

I have just returned from the Mid-Atlantic Regional meeting of the Conference staff of the four PA, the Central Atlantic, and the New York conferences. It was a wonderful time of reflection and discernment with colleagues in the ministry. On Wednesday at our closing communion service, the Rev. Freeman Palmer (Conference Minister of Central Atlantic) shared the daily devotional written by Vicki Kemper. It used the text from Haggai that I quoted above. Vicki’s focus was on having courage in our churches, in our lives, in our culture, in our nation, and in our world. One line she wrote is sticking with me today, “You who fear that the church is dying, take courage and consider what the Spirit is doing even now.”<sup>1</sup>

There is a lot written and shared about the church’s demise, about the decline in spiritual formation and worship attendance, the decrease in mission and ministry, as well as financial support for the church. Yet, my friends, we are Easter people. We are people of the resurrection.

As we approach Holy Week, beginning this Sunday with the commemoration of Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem, through the Passover meal which introduces Holy Communion to us, through the prayers in the Garden of Gethsemane, the arrest and scourging of Jesus, and finally the crucifixion of Jesus, we can forget that the path did not end on Golgotha. The path of our faith didn’t end at all. The resurrection of Jesus birthed a new way of being church – a church filled with hope and joy, with the recognition of our shortcomings, but also the power of God to make all things new.

So, take courage. When things seem the most tiring, the most challenging, the most hate filled, and the most divisive, God is bringing new life, new hope, a new spirit of life and living that can nourish and nurture us – if we but focus on God, what God has the power to transform, and our openness to have the courage to accept that transformation. May you have a blessed Holy Week. May God strengthen you in the worshipping, in the praying, and in the grieving what has been lost, AND renew in you a new spirit of hope in what we know is to come. ~Blessings, Bonnie
