FROM PASTOR BECKY ...

I always thought summer was supposed to be a time of rest. That it was supposed to be a time to take a break from all of the busyness of our daily lives and just relax. It is, after all, when families typically take vacations and school is out for the summer. Then I realized that vacations can be just as exhausting as the regular work week. There is all of the planning that goes in to taking a vacation. Then you have to pack and hopefully not forget anything. Often, there are a million things you want to do and see when you are on vacation. You get back to work the next week and you are bombarded by all of the work that built up while you were gone.

As I look at my schedule for the summer and plan out my summer vacations, I am trying to carve out space for time to truly relax. I hope that, despite the busyness even of vacation, you can take some time to just sit with God this summer. Find a quiet place away from everything and everyone and just rest in that space. Try to find some time to enjoy the beauty of creation. May your summer truly be a time of rest.

In light and love,
Pastor Becky

Welcome Home by Yael Lachman

How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity! – Psalm 133:1 (NRSV)

Imagine, if you will, that your neighbors are having a big family party. Every time their front door opens, you hear a chorus of joyful greetings: Hello! You're here! So great to see you!

Now imagine that you're walking through an oak woodland, and you hear the same kind of ecstatic greeting. Only here, the shouts of joy are coming from high above your head, and they sound something like, Waka-waka-waka!! If you look up quickly, you'll witness the event that has occasioned this loud celebration: an acorn woodpecker has just returned from a foraging expedition, causing family and friends to flap their wings and shout for joy.

I've spent many happy hours beneath the oaks, observing the clownish antics of Melanerpes formicivorus, and I am here to tell you that this wild greeting takes place all day long, every single time a bird returns to the communal tree. Apparently, the joy of welcoming someone home never gets old.

And what a home it is! Acorn woodpeckers live in social groups of a dozen or more birds, storing acorns in their shared granaries: dead trees pocked with thousands of acorn-shaped holes, many of which were drilled by past generations of birds. Communal groups also have an unusual mating arrangement in which multiple males and females breed together, raise chicks in one big cohort, and share resources cooperatively.

Even non-breeding siblings sometimes stick around for years, helping to forage for food, manage the shared acorn stash, and care for younger birds.

How good it is, indeed, for kindred to live together. Hallelujah! Waka-waka! Welcome home!

Prayer

God of earth and oak, of flapping wings and raucous song, help us to learn from our wise neighbors. May they teach us how to live in harmony, sharing the gifts of your abundant love.

Concerns from the Past:

- Kirk attended the Conference meeting via Zoom. Everything proposed by our conference was approved to move forward.

Concerns for the Future:

- We discussed the potential use of the church as a location for NA meetings.
- Lindsey presented a project with other community churches to set up a comfort room for children experiencing trauma.

Next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 11th at 6:30pm. Meeting was adjourned, and all joined in the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Lindsey

Consistory meets on the second Wednesday of the month at 6:30 PM. Meetings are open to every member of our congregation. For comments, concerns or further details, please see any member of Consistory.

Scammers are targeting pastors by using online sermon recordings to create requests for financial support. Be aware that Pastor Becky will NEVER text or email financial requests. Protect yourself, never send money or gift cards to anyone, even family members, unless you have spoken to them directly and are sure they are who they claim to be.

EVANGELISM & MISSION NEWS

ALLIANCE STAMP MINISTRY

Please continue to be on the lookout for the envelopes you receive with stamps. Just trim your used envelope postage so there is 1/3 inch of paper surrounding the stamp, and then drop them in one of the collection containers located in the Narthex or Fellowship Hall. If you want to know more about this ministry visit:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fj0GI1S3j6Ec>

Phoebe Partnership

Thank you to everyone who donates or helps make items. Phoebe staff and residents appreciate our efforts. Donations of large print puzzle, word-search and fill-in books, adult coloring books, small boxes of crayons or colored pencils are always welcomed by the residents.

Look for a collection basket in the side hall. If you'd like to do some simple sewing to help create prayer items or if you knit, crochet or have extra yarn—any colors, prayer blankets size 3' x 3', are being made for our ministry at Phoebe Richland.

Yarn and/or blankets can be dropped off at church or someone can pick them up.

Questions? Call or text Cheryl at 610-657-1787

COMMUNITY FOOD BANKS

Please continue to support both of our area Food Banks. Monetary donations can be made through your church offering or directly to: New Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, ATTN: Food Bank, 3233 Apples Church Road, Bethlehem, PA 18015, or the Emergency Food Bank at Word of Life, ATTN: Food Bank, 3221 Bingen Rd, Bethlehem, PA 18015.

Baked goods that were contributed to Marguerite Johnson's memorial service were enough to supply Fellowship Hour in May. Thank you to all who brought items. You can sign up to sponsor a Sunday on the side hall bulletin board. Contact Kate Griffiths if you have questions.

LSUCC QUILTERS

Our Quilters meet each Tuesday from 9 AM to 3 PM. New members are always welcome. No experience necessary, just a willingness to learn. They have already pinned in the quilt pictured here that will be raffled in December. Tickets are attached at the end of this Buzz. They are available in larger quantities by contacting Elaine Kantor or the Church office.

This club meets at Elaine Kantor's home, usually monthly. They are reading, The God of the Woods by Liz Moore. For date and time information please see Martha Sterling or Elaine Kantor.

Make a JOYFUL NOISE

Our JOYFUL NOISE campaign raised $27.00 in April for the H.A.M. Crisis Fund. In June the money collected will support the Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society.

ON HOLY GROUND

The Strengthen the Church (STC) Offering reflects the shared commitment of people across the United Church of Christ to cooperatively build up the UCC. Conferences and the national setting equally share the gifts given by members and friends through their local congregations. The funds support leadership development, new churches, youth ministry, and innovation in existing congregations. Through your generosity to this offering, you build up the Body of Christ. As God calls our congregations to be the church in new ways, your generosity will plant new churches, awaken new ideas in existing churches and develop the spiritual life in our youth and young adults. Our congregation will receive the STC offering on Pentecost Sunday, June 8, 2025.

Letter from Our Conference Minister Dated

May 15, 2025

"For it is you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you for I am fearfully and wonderfully made." (Psalm 139:13-14)

Dear Friends,

It's a rainy Thursday as I sit to write this letter. Usually, a scripture comes quickly to mind when I prepare to write but I must admit the idea for the letter came first. I searched for the scripture later. If you've been following me around lately you know that my back has been giving me problems, and I needed to be "pushed around" in a wheelchair at the Spring Meeting and am still using a walker. I am steadily improving, and I think I'll be without extra appliances for assistance soon.

That being said, I have discovered a few of the challenges that folks with mobility issues experience. During the last few weeks, I have noticed some barriers to accessibility that we, as a church, might want to address. So, I'm going to ask a number of questions, and I invite you to look around your church buildings and see what issues there may be.

How far is the handicap parking space from the entrance ramp? How level is the sidewalk or pathway? Will someone get stuck and need to lift their walker to get over bumps and cracks? Do you have a ramp that ends at a door, which then requires a step into the building? How level is the door frame at the entrance with the ramp or sidewalk? How far away is that entrance from the sanctuary and social spaces? Is the door so heavy that it requires one person to open it so another person can walk through? Could a person open the door with one hand while walking with a walker into the building?

Once inside, is there a chair lift or an elevator to enable a person to navigate stairs? Are there clear directions on how to operate the lift or is someone monitoring its use to assist? How about access to the chancel and the pulpit? Could a person navigate access, are there stairs, are there railings for support?

What about your restrooms? Do you have handicap accommodations like higher toilets, support bars, doors that swing easily so a walker can be maneuvered through the entrance? How easy would it be to reach the soap dispenser, the faucets, the towels?

Can someone easily access the social spaces? Can they get coffee and snacks? Are the chairs easily moveable?

In recent years we have all sought to be more welcoming to our neighbors, more accessible to newcomers. Sometimes we have focused on the theology of hospitality and welcome. And we should. But the practical issues of hospitality are also important. If I cannot navigate myself into the space, if I cannot be comfortable moving around, if I constantly need to ask for assistance to get from room to room or place to place, I might be so embarrassed that I may not return.

I encourage all our congregations to look at the Accessible to All resources from the national setting. Look around your spaces. Clear barriers. Remove challenges to access. Trust me, it's important.

~~Blessings, Bonnie

Galatians 3:24-29

Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be reckoned as righteous by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek; there is no longer slave or free; there is no longer male and female, for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.
