FROM PASTOR BECKY ...

General Synod was, as always, an amazing experience. The amount of energy that is in the air as hundreds of people of faith come together for worship, dialogue, and decision making is remarkable. The worship was uplifting, spirit-inspired, and it challenged us to deepen our faith. Many of the conversations were emotional as we listened and prayed with each other. I was reminded multiple times of why that UCC motto is so important. “No matter who you are or where you are on life’s journey you are welcome here.”

I speak a lot about how divided we feel right now and encourage us to come together. Over the last few years, whenever I get overwhelmed by the tension caused by this division, someone or something reminds me of how very important it is that we have conversations and listen with our hearts. Jesus took the time to listen to people, to get to know people. He opened his heart to everyone. We must begin to go deeper with our faith and with our relationships. We must begin to listen with our hearts and hear each other. While we may have differences, we are all essential parts of the body of Christ and those differences are something that should be celebrated.

In light and love,
Pastor Becky

Return to the Deep Sources

by Talitha Arnold

Open my eyes, so that I may behold the wondrous things out of your law. I live as an alien in the land, do not hide your commandments from me. – Psalm 119:18-19 (NRSV)

“Return to the deep sources,” wrote poet May Sarton. “Nothing less will nourish the torn spirit, the bewildered heart, the angry mind” (“Santos: New Mexico” in Collected Poems: 1930-1973, from W. W. Norton).

Bewildered and torn, feeling like a stranger in their own land, the psalmist asked God to help them return to their deep sources. “Open my eyes,” they asked, “to behold your wondrous law. Reveal your commandments that gave life to our ancestors in the wilderness.”

Sometimes dismissed by Christian scholars as a praise song to the law or a pedantic teaching tool (each stanza begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet), Psalm 119 can be profoundly comforting and empowering in our time. Like the psalmist (and perhaps like you), I feel increasingly like a stranger in this land—a place where people are kidnapped by masked and armed men, where medical care for children and the elderly is inaccessible, where public lands are up for grabs. And when such inhumanity is authorized by people who wear gold crosses and celebrated by people who read gilded Bibles, I am lost in bewilderment and anger.

Like the psalmist, I need to open my eyes to God’s wondrous law and remember the words that gave life in the desert. As a Christian, I also need to remember the Word that became flesh and showed us how to love this world as God so loves.

Like Sarton, I need to return to the deep sources, for as the poet reminds us, “nothing less will teach the stiff hands a new way to serve, to carve into our lives the forms of tenderness.” Nothing less “will speak for love.”

Prayer

Deep Source of all Love, Strength, Wisdom, help us return to you. Amen.

Consistory Corner

LSUCC CONSISTORY MINUTES (Pending Approval) July 9, 2025

In attendance: Kirk Gorkos, Tina Seifert, Tom Sofka, Tim Mattes, Tony Nauroth, Lindsey Sanders, and Alan Byerley. Missing: Judy Koch, Paul Wilhelm, Kate Griffiths, Cheryl Christman, and Pastor Becky Thomas.

Alan called the meeting to order. Kirk showed a clip of a sermon based on Daniel chapter 11. Alan led us in prayer.

Secretary's report: Lindsey presented the Secretary's report. Tony made a motion to accept the minutes as presented. Tom seconded. All voted to accept.

Treasurer's report: Kirk presented a 6-month review of the 2025 budget to date. Tom made a motion to accept. Tim seconded. All voted to accept.

Pastor's Report: Pastor Becky was on vacation, so no Pastor's Report was presented.

Notes:

- Vacation 8/28-9/4; Marian Shearer will be preaching 8/31.
- DMin semester ends 6/27. Next semester begins 9/15.

President's Communication:

We received the following note regarding the purchase of the Clavinova:

Dear Consistory,
Words cannot really express my appreciation for your being willing to sell me the Clavinova. I have enjoyed this instrument every time I played it at LSUCC. I'm excited to have a working piano in my home again and will think fondly of the choir members and congregation every time I play it!

With great thanks,
Tina Giesler

Committee reports:

- Property –
 - Final price all-in for the railings (including materials, installation, finishing, staining, and sealing) is $6,000.

Concerns from the Past:

- One computer has been fully migrated. The second is still being processed.
- Kirk talked to American Funds and they are working up a proposal of how they would invest the money currently in the Merrill Lynch fund.
- Alan has not heard anything back from PNEC regarding the request for office space.
- The WISE committee now has a liaison assigned to our church. They will be guiding us through the process of becoming a WISE certified church.

Concerns for the Future:

- Donny Severn donated shingles for the shed. Once the weather cools down a little, the Property Committee will make those repairs.

There is no Consistory meeting in August. Next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 10th at 6:30pm. Meeting was adjourned, and all joined in the Lord's Prayer

Respectfully submitted,
Lindsey

Consistory meets on the second Wednesday of the month at 6:30 PM. Meetings are open to every member of our congregation. For comments, concerns or further details, please see any member of Consistory.

Scammers are targeting pastors by using online sermon recordings to create requests for financial support. Be aware that Pastor Becky will NEVER text or email financial requests. Protect yourself, never send money or gift cards to anyone, even family members, unless you have spoken to them directly and are sure they are who they claim to be.

WISE TEAM UPDATE

The WISE team met and began the discussion of the book we are reading, "What Happened to You: Conversations in Trauma, Resilience, and Healing" by Bruce D. Perry and Oprah Winfrey. We are going through the book slowly and will continue to review it over the next few months. We will be meeting with our liaison from the UCC Mental Health Network. If you are curious about this process you can go to <https://www.mhn-ucc.org/who-we-are/> to get more information or chat with someone from our WISE team.

Our church family wants to share in your joys and sorrows. Hospitals and care facilities do not notify churches or share information, so please contact the church office with information about family members who are hospitalized, in care, or would welcome prayer for any reason. We'd also like to share your joys so be sure to let us know those as well.

Paint Like Bob Ross Event

August 17, 2 PM

Sign up today for this or any other up-coming class online at <https://www.letsaintapicture.art/>. There are a limited number of seats available in each class. Share the information with your friends and neighbors. It's really a lot of fun and you may discover a talent you never knew you had. The cost is $60 and all supplies are included except a roll of paper towels.

This club meets at Elaine Kantor's home, usually monthly. They are reading, My Friends by Fredrik Backman. For date and time information please see Martha Sterling or Elaine Kantor.

EVANGELISM & MISSION NEWS

ALLIANCE STAMP MINISTRY

Please continue to be on the lookout for the envelopes you receive with stamps. Just trim your used envelope postage so there is 1/3 inch of paper surrounding the stamp, and then drop them in one of the collection containers located in the Narthex or Fellowship Hall. Sept 7: No Fellowship Hour
Sept 14: Outdoor Service & Picnic
Oct 5:

Thank you to Diana Severn for sponsoring fellowship hour in July. You can sign up to sponsor a Sunday on the side hall bulletin board. We are currently seeking someone to oversee this ministry. It entails keeping track of supplies and assisting the people who sponsor each month. If you want more information, or are willing to answer this call, please see any member of Consistory.

LSUCC QUILTERS

Our Quilters meet each Tuesday from 9 AM to 3 PM. New members are always welcome. No experience necessary, just a willingness to learn. They have already pinned in the quilt pictured here that will be raffled in December. Tickets are attached at the end of this Buzz. They are available in larger quantities by contacting Elaine Kantor or the Church office.

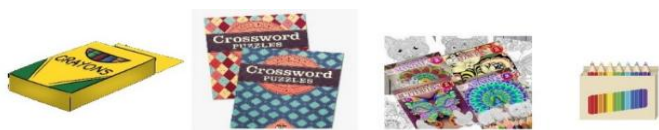

Our Quilters enjoyed a delicious sample of cinnamon muffins made by the students in the second week of lauramysweets summer cooking classes.

Phoebe Partnership

Thank you to everyone who donates or helps make items. Phoebe staff and residents appreciate our efforts. Donations of large print puzzle, word-search and fill-in books, adult coloring books, small boxes of crayons or colored pencils are always welcomed by the residents.

Look for a collection basket in the side hall. If you'd like to do some simple sewing to help create prayer items or if you knit, crochet or have extra yarn—any colors, prayer blankets size 3' x 3', are being made for our ministry at Phoebe Richland.

Yarn and/or blankets can be dropped off at church or someone can pick them up.

Letter from Our Conference Minister Dated July 3, 2025

"But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." (Philippians 3:20, NRSVUE)

Dear Friends,

This week we celebrate Independence Day for the 250th time. The proclamations made in the Declaration of Independence were made, and as you know, the American Revolution was the result. How will you celebrate? Will you have a barbeque? A picnic? Watch fireworks? Cuddle with your pet who is terrified at the noise of fireworks.

What will the church services on Sunday July 6 be like?
Will we focus on patriotic hymns and readings, or will we look at the scriptures for our liturgy and focus on God? There will likely be a mix of both in many places.
That's not altogether a bad thing. The challenge is to remember that we worship God and not our nation, its parties and practices, its economic structures, and its relationships with the rest of the world. We, as followers of Jesus, need to remember that governments and empires are not where our hearts rest. Rather our hearts rest in the knowledge of God's creation and presence, the accompaniment and leadership of Jesus, and the strengthening power of the Holy Spirit. To worship anything other than our triune God is idolatry.

I can recall as a child the excitement of going on a picnic and staying until the fireworks finished. I remember that excitement clearly. I don't recall as a child that I got as excited at worship on Sunday morning, or prayers and scriptures we said and read, or hymns we sang. Funny. We become accustomed to excitement as a means to find joy – at least that's what we can do. What if we got just as excited about worshipping God and being equipped to go into the world and sharing God's light and love?

There has been a trend recently to only be excited about Christianity when it has been linked to patriotism, and the presumption that we are a Christian nation. Our nation was formed with freedom – freedom of speech, thought, and religion. We were never and are not a Christian nation. To link the two (nationalism and Christianity) leads to the denial of Native American spirituality, Jewish practice, Muslim faithfulness, the multi-religious and non-religious peoples and discounts the independence we fought so hard to protect.

By all means, celebrate your faith! Find joy in your worship. And do not limit God and how God is revealed to the multitude of peoples in our midst. We all have a right to faith and to the independence we celebrate. Anchor yourself in our ongoing relationship with God and the knowledge that ALL are created in the image of God

~~Blessings, Bonnie
